State Board of Canvassers to meet December 5

LINCOLN -- The Nebraska State Board of Canvassers is scheduled to meet at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, December 5, in the Governor's Hearing Room at the State Capitol in Lincoln. The purpose of the meeting is to certify the results of the statewide general election on November 8.

The meeting is open to the public.

Once county canvassing boards have met and certified their results, local election officials will submit the certified results from local, state and federal races to the Secretary of State's office. Results will be compiled and presented to the State Board of Canvassers for final approval. Only results for offices filed through the Secretary of State are included in that report.

If final certified results of a race fall within the parameters of an automatic recount, the board will order that a recount be carried out on Dec. 7.
