Board scheduled to meet and certify results from statewide general

LINCOLN – Members of the Nebraska State Board of Canvassers will convene in the Governor’s Hearing Room at the State Capitol 1:30 p.m. on Monday, December 3. The purpose of the meeting is to certify results of the statewide general election on November 6.

The board consists of all state constitutional officers, except the Lt. Governor. Governor Ricketts will serve as chairman. The meeting is open to the public.

Once county canvassing boards have met and certified their results, local election officials will submit the certified results from local, state and federal races to the Secretary of State’s office. Results will be compiled and presented to the State Board of Canvassers for final approval. Only results for offices filed through the Secretary of State are included in that report.

If any final certified results of a race fall within the parameters of an automatic recount, the board will order that a recount be carried out starting at 9:00 a.m. on December 5.

A copy of the December 3 agenda is available online at <https://www.nebraska.gov/calendar/index.cgi> and by request through the Secretary of State’s office.
