Board of State Canvassers to certify general election results

Members of the Nebraska Board of State Canvassers will convene on November 30, 2026, to canvass and certify the results of the 2026 General Election. The meeting will be held at 11:30 a.m. in the Governor's Hearing Room at the State Capitol in Lincoln.

The Board of State Canvassers includes Governor Jim Pillen, Secretary of State Bob Evnen, Attorney General Mike Hilgers, State Treasurer Joey Spellerberg and Auditor of Public Accounts Mike Foley.

The Board of State Canvassers is required by law to certify the 2026 general election results following the election. County election officials have spent the past few weeks canvassing results and preparing certification materials for the Board of State Canvassers. The canvass process allows county election officials to account for every ballot cast and ensure each valid vote is included in the official results.

If any final certified results of a race fall within the parameters of an automatic recount, a recount will occur on December 2. In that event, a second meeting of the Nebraska Board of State Canvassers is scheduled for December 9 at 10:00 a.m. in the Governor's Hearing Room at the State Capitol in Lincoln.

A copy of the agenda is available online and in the Secretary of State's Office during regular business hours.

Unofficial 2026 general election results are available at electionresults.nebraska.gov.
