Secretary of State's Office publishes Nebraska's 2026 Official Election Calendar

The 2026 Official Election Calendar for the State of Nebraska is now available on the Secretary of State's website here. The calendar sets out election dates and other significant election reminders regarding the 2026 election year.

"Being able to vote or run for an office is of critical importance to Nebraska citizens," said Secretary Evnen. "My office works very hard to ensure every Nebraska citizen has an opportunity to participate in elections either as a candidate, a voter, or both. The 2026 election calendar has been reviewed and approved by the Attorney General, according to law, and is ready for public viewing."

Important dates to note:

January 5, 2026 – First day a person may file for office to have his or her name placed on the ballot as a candidate for the 2026 election cycle.

February 17, 2026 -- Last day for incumbents (any current office holder) to file for office on the primary election ballot.

March 2, 2026 – Last day for non-incumbents (new filers) to file for office for the primary election.

May 12, 2026 – Nebraska's Primary Election

November 3, 2026 – Nebraska's General Election
