

Constitutional Amendments

Number	Description
No. 1	A constitutional amendment to change the method of nominating and electing the Lieutenant Governor.
No. 2	A constitutional amendment to state that the language in the Constitution shall be construed to be gender neutral and to direct the Secretary of State to revise and reprint the Constitution to implement such construction.
No. 3 Part A	A constitutional amendment to change election procedures for constitutional amendments to require two separate votes by the electorate.
No. 3 Part B	A constitutional amendment to identify the powers of initiative and referendum and to remove obsolete language.
No. 3 Part C	A constitutional amendment to change filing requirements for initiative petitions.
No. 4	A constitutional amendment to change the effective date of compensation changes made by the Legislature for the judiciary to allow the changes to take effect for all judges at the beginning of the full term of any judge of any court in the state
No. 5	A constitutional amendment to require the resignation of members of the Legislature elected to other state or local offices except as otherwise provided by law.

Last Updated on 08/28/2000